

WILL YOU BE OUR FRIEND?

Becoming a member of the Jacksonville Friends of the Library (FOL) is one of the best ways you can support literacy in your community.

No matter the tier you choose, you're helping a valuable public resource continue to offer free programs and services to the public of Onslow County.

Here is just a sample of what the Friends fund at OCPL's Jacksonville location:

- >> Guest speakers and performers for events
- >> Summer Reading Program
- >> Digital library items for Onslow County Public Library (OCPL)

Friends members also receive the following benefits:

- Admittance to members-only book sale events
- One free book at each book sale
- Ability to attend and participate in monthly Friends meetings and fundraisers
- Option to join the Friends board
- A voice in community enhancement activities

ACROSS OUR SYSTEM...

Our Friends of the Library have provided valuable support by funding:

- Special programs and events for adults, families, teens, and youth throughout the year
- New materials for OCPL's digital library collection of ebooks and audiobooks
- Assistance with the purchase of books, furniture, equipment, snacks, supplies, and other necessities
- Special performers and prizes for the annual Summer Reading Program
- Repeating monthly programs for all ages, including adults, families, teens, and youth

Our Friends also helped to support the Library's mission by obtaining grants from:

- Library Services and Technology Act, through the State Library of North Carolina: funded an award-winning digital library kiosk at Albert J. Ellis Airport - the first one in North Carolina
- North Carolina Humanities Council: supported Let's Talk About It, an interactive discussion series with Continuing Education credits available to participants
- North Carolina Arts Council: provided cultural and artistic performances of song, dance, poetry, puppetry, and more

USED

BOOK SALES

The Friends host a used book sale of previously loved items, usually from Thursday to Saturday during the second full week of February and September.

Members receive early access to the book sales, as well as one free book per sale.

Be sure to like the Friends on Facebook to get the latest news and updates!

The Friends are grateful for donations of your gently used books, DVDs, and audiobooks!

Join us for our monthly meetings at the Main Library on the fourth Wednesday of each month at 9:30am.

Come share our goals to promote education and access to information!
